Campbell County, Virginia

ADDENDUM
FOLLOWS...

Custody: City of Lynchburg

Date of erection: 1806

Builder: Dr. George Cabell

Present condition: Fair

Description:

The building is U-shaped, with the ends of the wings in demi-octagonal form. It is two stories high, of brick, now plastered. The roof is hipped. There is now a double-decked Victorian porch on the front.

The interior has two large rooms at either end of the entrance cross hall. In the south room is an exceptionally fine door frame, the frieze carved with draperies.
